DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Exaplin.

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

These issues have happened in the past during other presidential terms. The main reason they are being protested now is due to widespread dislike or opposition to our current president. The problem occurs as a result of liberal protestors not getting their way finally, due to the Trump administrations rapid passing of several executive orders. I believe the country has been divided since before the election. Another topic of concern is the building of the wall on the Mexican border. In my opinion, the wall will most likely not solve the problem of illegal immigration along the Mexican border. The other topic of concern is Abortion & a women's right to choose.
